

Exeter & Devon Crematorium Open Day & Annual Remembrance Service

Saturday 5 September 2015

11am – 4.00pm

Topsham Road, Exeter, EX2 6EU
Tel: 01392 496333

Come along for an informative tour of our crematory, tour of our significant trees and learn more about the history of our site – including exciting Roman discoveries found on and around the site.

Staff will be on hand to search cremation records*, show locations of final resting places and turn pages of our Books of Remembrance. There will also be demonstrations of our music system used for services, where visitors can search and listen to the wide range of music available.

Talks include the history of funeral services and information together with a question and answer session from the RD&E Mortuary.

The Dignity South West charity organ will be present, which is the oldest of the Dignity fleet, together with a vintage hearse.

Our Annual Remembrance Service in memory of loved ones will round the day off at 3.00pm, followed by the release of doves. Please contact us with names of loved one's to be read out during the remembrance service.

* For records prior to 1996 we require a month & year of death to be able to search our manual records.
