What to do when someone dies

CHECKLIST

It's perfectly normal to be unsure of what to do when someone dies and we understand how difficult it can be when the deceased is a relative or close friend. This checklist will help guide you through the process and ensure everything is taken care of before arranging a funeral for your loved one.

-	ocal GP
A Medical Certificate may not be issued straight away death is sudden or the cause of death is unknown. Ur deaths will need to be reported to a coroner.
Register the death
You will need to do the following things within fiv
Find a register office in the area where the person dieMake an appointment at the register office	o To find a register office visit gov.uk/register-offices
If available, but don't worry if not, take the person	n's:
Full name of the person who died	☐ Medical Certificate of Cause of Death
Their full home address	signed by a doctor
Their date and place of birth	☐ Birth Certificate
Details of where and when the person died	Council Tax bill Driving License
☐ Their occupation if applicable
If they were receiving any benefits, including pensions or allowance from public funds	PassportMarriage/Civil Partnership Certificate
The name, occupation and date of birth of their spouse or civil partner if applicable	if applicable
	NHS Medical Card
	Proof of address
Ensure the registrar provides you with the followi	ing:
Certificate of the Registration of Death	Death Certificate
 In England and Wales: Green Certificate for burial or cremation 	Purchase additional death certificates for
 In Scotland: Registration or Notification of Death 	when you're sorting out your loved one's affairs and finances
○ In Northern Ireland: GR021 form
. Organ and body donation
Did the person leave wishes for organ donation? If yes, the NHS will contact you and provide advice and	☐ Yes ☐ No ☐ Don't Know d information on what happens next
Did the person leave wishes for body donation?	Yes No Don't Know

4. Choose a Funeral Director

Contact the Funeral Director and provide	le them with the following information	on:
Personal details about the person who has	s died Personal details abo	Personal details about the next of kin
Check if your loved one bought one of ou Prepaid Funeral Plans. Please call us on 08	Consider what type of funeral you would like for your loved one
Find your nearest Dignity Funeral Diddignityfunerals.co.uk/fdfinder	rector
You will need to do the following things	s at the earliest opportunity:
Decide where you would like the individual to rest before the funeral, either the funeral home or at your own home	Arrange a suitable time for your Funeral Director to collect the deceased and bring them into their care	Visit your loved one in a private Chapel of Rest, if you wish to do so
Let people know about the You will need to notify the following pe
Who to inform first	Financial	Government
☐ The person's GP	Bank & building societies	HM Revenue and Customs
Relatives & friends	Insurance companies	for tax purposes
☐ The funeral director	(Life, car, travel)	Pension providers
Register office	Credit card providers	Passport agency
Employer/school	Solicitor/accountant	 DVLA if the deceased held a driving license
Health professionals. You may need to cancel any outstanding hospital appointments		Local council for council tax & Electoral Register
Property and bills	Others
Mortgage provider or landlord	Dentist
Utility companies (electricity, gas & water)	Optician
	Subscriptions
Buildings and content insurance provider	Social groups and clubs
Mobile phone providerBroadband/TV companies	Re-direct the post
	Close online and social media accounts

