What to write in a sympathy card

When someone close to you passes, you may want to write a message in a sympathy card for their family. This will show that you care and the person who has passed is in your thoughts. Whether you want to express your own feelings, share a fond memory or simply offer your support, finding the right words isn't an easy task.

Even if your message is quite short, it will still come across as warm and heartfelt. We have listed some examples below to help you write your own sympathy card.

- We are so sorry for your loss
- Our family is keeping your family in our thoughts and prayers
- Thinking of you in these difficult times
- Our hearts go out to you and your family
- We want you to know that we are here for you if you need anything
- With heartfelt condolences
- Wishing you as much peace as possible during this difficult time
- Words cannot even begin to express our sorrow
- With deepest sympathy as you remember [name]
- Holding you close in my thoughts and hoping you are doing okay
