

Loughborough Mausoleum & Vaults:

A Lasting Memorial

Loughborough Crematorium

Established in 1960, Loughborough Crematorium is one of Leicestershire's most peaceful and well-regarded places of remembrance. Set within over 6.5 acres of landscaped grounds on the edge of Charnwood Forest, it offers a calm and natural sanctuary for families to honour loved ones in a setting shaped by greenery and quiet reflection.

The grounds feature new and old trees, beautiful flowers, peaceful water features and dedicated memorial gardens, creating a gentle and welcoming atmosphere throughout the year. With a longstanding commitment to dignity and care, Loughborough Crematorium continues to offer meaningful options for cremation, memorialisation and above-ground interment within our elegant mausoleum.

Our Mausoleum

Located within our carefully tended gardens and surrounded by cherry blossom trees, the mausoleum offers a prestige resting place for those who wish for a lasting tribute above ground, within a secure structure. The vaults within the mausoleum can be personalised and offer comfort, peace, and permanence for generations.

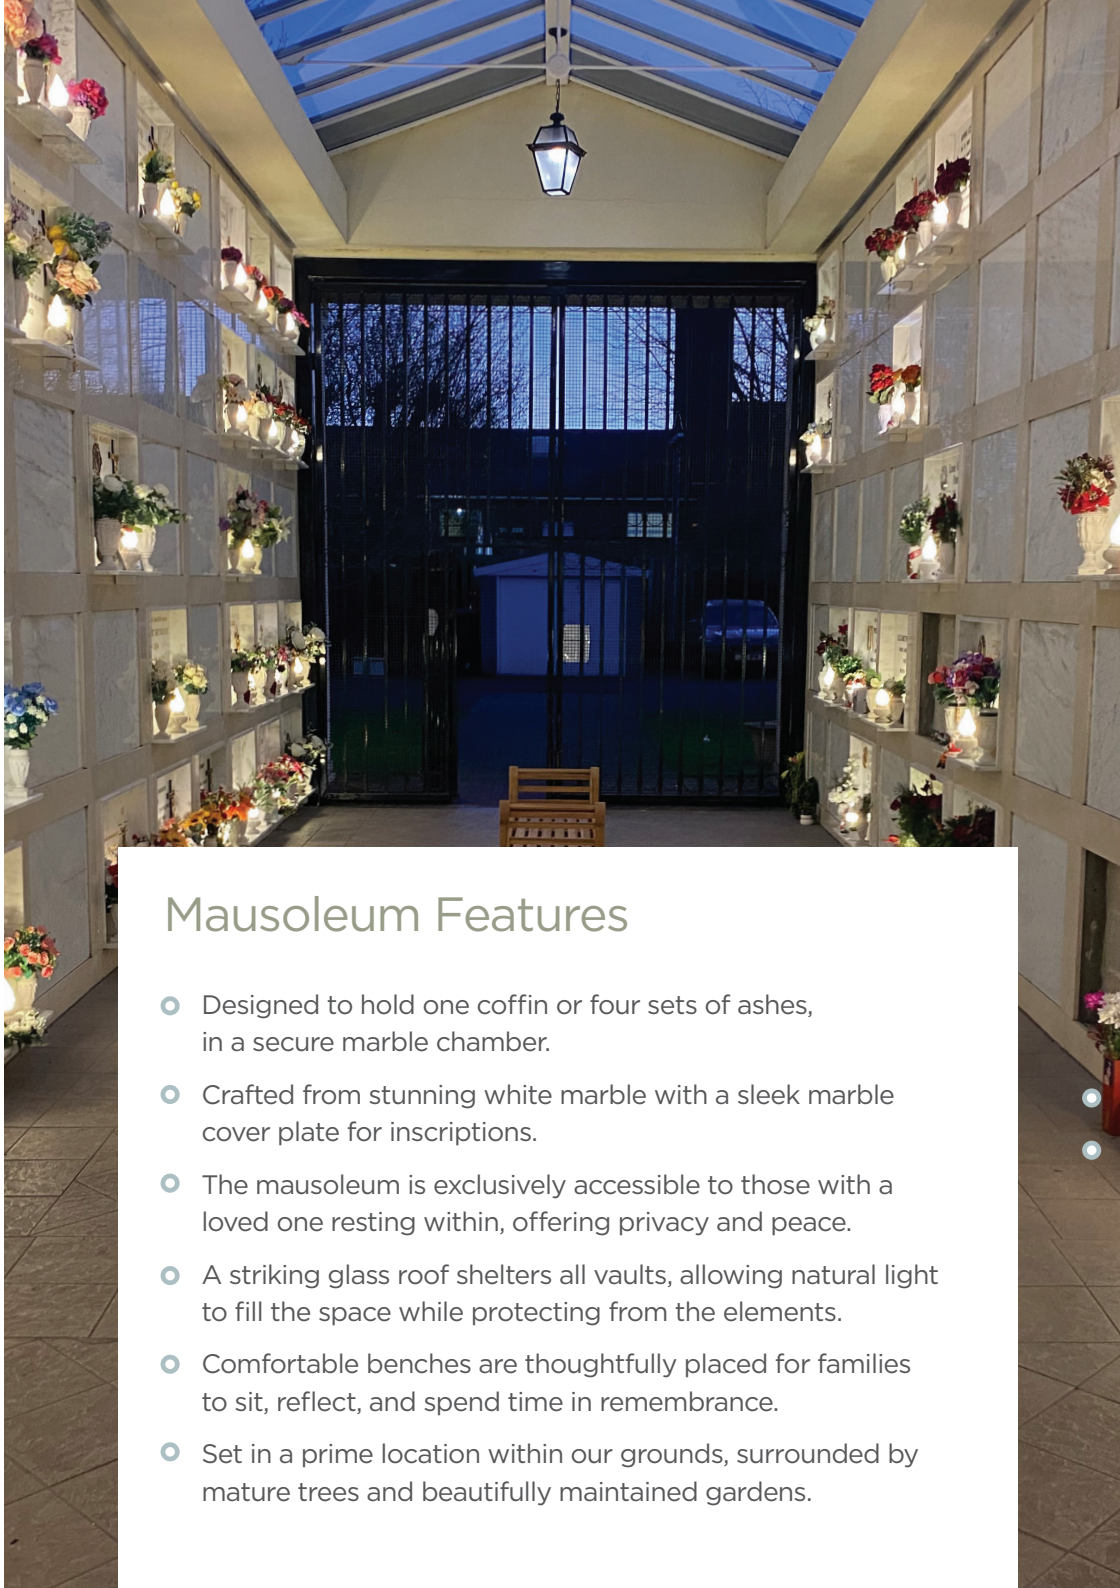

What is a Mausoleum?

A mausoleum is a free-standing structure that houses loved ones in an above ground internal vault. It is a timeless and distinguished choice that combines tradition, religious significance, and long-term protection with lasting elegance. Our gated mausoleum offers a private setting, enhanced by a striking glass roof that allows natural light into the interior by day and a tranquil night sky by dusk. Inside, there are five levels of carefully constructed vault chambers, with options for both coffins and ashes, including either one coffin or four sets of ashes, offering flexibility and a respectful tribute for families of all backgrounds and preferences.

Why Choose a Mausoleum Vault?

There are many reasons why a vault is chosen, from religious and cultural traditions to the desire for a more premium option, as well as practical and emotional needs.

- Secure & Protective – Located within a covered, locked mausoleum.
- Elegant & Lasting – Crafted from high-quality materials and within a glass-roofed setting.
- Low Maintenance – Carefully maintained in a preserved environment.
- Personalisation – Each vault allows for individualised tributes, including inscriptions, flowers, and personal touches.

Crafted to Endure

Our mausoleum vaults are crafted from premium white marble, a material long associated with beauty, strength, and timeless remembrance. Formed naturally over thousands of years, marble is celebrated for its smooth texture and enduring quality, offering both elegance and resilience.

The polished white finish gives each vault a clean, serene appearance, reflecting light softly throughout the space. Subtle veining adds individuality to every piece, ensuring each memorial is both personal and dignified. This makes white marble a fitting choice for memorials that honour loved ones for generations.
